The Norman Course
 Open since September 2005, The Norman Course incorporates the stunning, natural undulations of the Potomac River Valley, using Norman's "Least Disturbance Approach" to course design. The front nine runs east along the Potomac River, parallel to Nos. 16, 17 and 18 of the RTJ-II course, while the back nine comes west along the river towards Goose Creek. The last four holes measure exactly 1,760 yards - equal to one mile - making it, according to Norman, "the hardest mile in golf!"

Robert Trent Jones, Jr. Course
 A spectacular environment showcases the master touch of golf course designer Robert Trent Jones, Jr. This superb 18-hole layout incorporates fields, woodlands, natural stone outcroppings and centuries old rock walls. A classic experience awaits both the accomplished and novice golfer on this 7063-yard, par-72 course.
